

Mrs. Brown was one of Titanic's 1st Class passengers. She has become known as the Unsinkable Molly Brown. In Lifeboat # 6 she pleaded with others to return to the site of the sinking to rescue people out of the water. When reporters in New York asked her how she had survived the sinking it is said that she replied, "Typical Brown luck: We're unsinkable!"

Margaret Brown presents a cup to Carpathia's Captain, Capt. Arthur H. Rostron, for rescuing Titanic's survivors.
